CONGRESS WILL LIKELY DECLARE WAR AT END

PRESIDENT IT IS SAID WILL VETO BUT
MEASURE WILL VERY LIKELY BE PASS-
ED OVER HIS HEAD

WHITE HOUSE SILENT ON COURSE

WASHINGTON, March 21.—A joint resolution, declaring war with Germany at an end, is the next step to be taken by Congress in support of the senate's rout of the peace treaty and its return to President Wilson.

With no break in the silence which has engulfed the White House ever since the defeat of the treaty and no intimation as to when the President would disclose his plans, senate leaders remaining in Washington today prepared to rush action on the Knox resolution. Senator Borah, one of the irreconcilables, said this afternoon that the coming week would see an effort in the senate to obtain consideration of the Knox resolution.

The general opinion in congressional circles is that no great difficulty will be experienced in securing the passage of a resolution declaring the war at an end. Should the President veto such a resolution, as it is presumed he will, the Republicans believe enough votes can be mustered to override his veto. When this is accomplished peace with Germany will finally be a reality. According to Senator Borah "peace will be the law of the land."

Should the President remain obstinate, however, and refuse to bow to the will of the majority in Congress, a very extraordinary situation would arise. Peace, of course, would be an accomplished fact, but the passage of the joint resolution could not compel the President to authorize the re-institution of a diplomatic and consular corps in Germany. In short it would not have the effect of re-establishing diplomatic relations with Germany.

With the prospect that both the President and the senate will be at sword's points for many months to come, interest now is centering on the White House in the hope that the President will use the impetuosity of his position and choose some graceful method of escape from the embarrassment which would make the situation utterly confusing and intolerable.

While senators generally believe no expression on the treaty situation will be forthcoming from the President for some time, it has been intimated that the President now is considering a message or statement to the American people wherein he will be able to make public his plans for the future—and the campaign. The President has often expressed his pleasure at being able to take "common council" with the people and as he has already suggested a "great and solemn referendum" on the treaty, it is only natural to assume that he will seek to determine the pre-election tendency of the public on the treaty situation and this could best be done by publication of a statement of his aims, and observations on the public reaction.

I. C. C. OPENS HEARINGS ON THE GUARANTEE CLAUSE OF R. R. BILL

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Railroad managers and attorneys from all parts of the country came here today to attend the first meeting of the Inter-State Commerce Commission under the terms of the Cummins-Each bill. The commission will argue the question whether the railroads of the country shall be considered as a whole or individually under Section 42 of the transportation laws under which the government guarantees a return of 5 1-2 per cent.

LITTLE HOPE FOR PASSAGE OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN DELAWARE

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Chances for ratification of the Woman's Suffrage amendment in Delaware were described as "very bad" at suffrage headquarters here today. In the state of Washington leaders hope the ratification will be accomplished. Legislators in both Delaware and Washington met today to consider the suffrage amendment which would allow women voters equal rights as enjoyed by men. Thirty-four states have ratified and it is hoped Delaware and Washington will ratify the amendment making 36, the number necessary for federal ratification.

GERARD GIVES VIEW ON KILLING OF LEAGUE

NEW YORK, March 22.—James W. Gerard former American ambassador to Germany declares that the defeat of the League of Nations covenant by the United States Senate will result in a revival of "wars and revolutions." Gerard was asked by the United Press to comment on the effect on Europe of the defeat of the league.

FIRST STORK NOW PELICAN MAKES ZABSKI TROUBLE

Alleged infraction of Insurance
Laws Land Philadelphia Co.'s
Solicitors in County Jail

FALSE PRETENSE IS CHARGED

The population of the Clearfield county jail was increased to the extent of six more or less slick-haired, debonaire "vest-pocket" business men on Friday last, thanks to an investigation started by Squire James W. Ruffner, of Madera, and carried thru to a highly successful conclusion of the first round by District Attorney Arnold and Sheriff Gorman, aided and abetted by Harry Ritter, of Harrisburg, an attache of the Insurance Department of Pennsylvania.

The six gentlemen in question are "Doctor" Walter Zabski, of Madera, the erstwhile alleged birth control expert; Charles Felix, Madera; A. Stielman, John Oana, and Albert Roldes, all of Philadelphia, and Mike Holenchak, formerly of Philadelphia, but now of Winbury.

The prisoners are in jail in default of bail, after a hearing before Squire Ruffner at Madera, and are each charged with conspiracy and false pretense. The arrests and charges grew out of a little "flier in insurance," the ramifications of the outfit extending from Philadelphia, up through the counties of Clearfield, Cambria, Jefferson and Indiana.

The Philadelphia contingent, representing the Pelican Insurance company and the Bennett agency of Philadelphia, hopped into Clearfield county some time ago and let "Doctor" Zabski and Holenchak onto their scheme to sell insurance. The policies to be sold were those of the Pelican Insurance company. The offer was lattering and looked like easy money and the local men decided to join hands with the city solicitors.

The "stuff"—stuff it was—was labeled and sold as "life insurance," but the policies sold represented health and accident insurance. Business was confined strictly to the foreigners among the mining population of the four counties named and as such victim was required to put up $12 for membership fee and $3 or premium, a land office business was soon underway. The new insurance was so good and so cheap that the policy holders couldn't keep as quiet about it as they were expected to and when the keen-witted Justice tuffner got a line on how things were progressing he set a trap for the outfit and "some haul" was the result.

More than one hundred policies were sold in the Madera end of the county alone, and while there was an ample limit fixed in the policies that provision cut no ice with the solicitors, who took the fee, wrote the policy and fearing a three months old child might be considered rather green for life insurance, when they found such whose parents were willing to bite, the gentlemanly agent immediately shot the age of the insured from three months to thirty years. It was fast going while the going was good but the Pennsylvania statutes prescribe certain insurance imitations, hence the upset.

Following the arrests Mr. Ritter came to Clearfield and assisted the District Attorney with the case. Mr. Arnold went to Philadelphia Friday or a conference with Insurance Commissioner Donaldson on the matter, and while there called at the office of the Pelican Insurance company, who to sell a life insurance policy, and asked them to make good the amounts abstracted from the alleged Clearfield county victims but this was refused. The Bennett agency was also visited, with the same proposition and he same result.

There is an old couplet which tells of the bird called the pelican, whose bill holds more than its belican and then informs any doubting countryman that he can't tell how in hell.

District Attorney Arnold proposes to show at May term of criminal court, not only how much the Pelican company holds, (the contents strongly) but he's going to make them isgorge and raise all the helican with the six gentlemen now in durlisgorge and raise all the helican vice vile, and some others.

"Old Doctor" Zabski was defended in our courts some time since,

METHODISTS FLAY WILSON AND COLBY

Attack The Newest Secretary of
State Because of His Stand
On Prohibition

SAY WILSON HAS FALLEN DOWN

In its massed attack on all forms of laxity the Methodist conference Saturday swung its forces over to the prohibition sector and cheered and applauded during a scathing denunciation of President Wilson and Bainbridge Colby, the newly appointed secretary of state.

Mr. Colby was called a "paid lobbyist of the brewing interests." His appointment was termed "perfectly outrageous." President Wilson came in for his share of the arraignment because he had "come down from his former high leve and continued to come down, down, down until he got to where Colby was and made this outrageous appointment."

The speaker was Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals. He spoke at the morning session of the Philadelphia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, Fifty-fourth and Catharine streets.

Mr. Wilson was frequently interrupted in the course of his speech by the applause of the audience and by the cries of "Hallelujah!" "Amen!" and "That's Right!"

Enthusiasm was almost equally strong during the speech of the Rev. R. E. Johnson, president of the temperance board, who preceded Mr. Wilson on the program. He called for a war to the knife on the "wet traitors." He denounced Governor Edwards of New Jersey and Governor Ritchie of Maryland as "leaders in a movement of rank disloyalty and spokesmen for propagandists who would perpetuate one of the most hideous forms of crime."

Colby Lobbyist, Says Wilson
"Bainbridge Colby, recently appointed secretary of state, has been hanging around Washington and is evidently the paid lobbyist of the brewery interests," said Mr. Wilson. "In this last cabinet appointment

BELL TELEPHONE INCREASE ONLY TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

The Bell Telephone company rate increase for Clearfield, mention of which was made in The Progress on Saturday evening, means a boost of but 25 per cent. in rates instead of "50 per cent." as the heading of the article stated.

We make this correction in justice to the Bell company.

Mrs. V. L. Johnston and son Billie of Jersey Shore, are visiting her mother Mrs. Carrie Smith on Fourth street.

When one of his Bigler township clients haled him into court to recover about $150 paid the doctor for medical services. In this case it appeared that the "doctor" claimed then to be in league with the stork instead of the pelican, and it was alleged had agreed for a consideration to have the stork visit any childless home at will and deposit therein a boy or girl baby. The employing "father-to-be" in the case which brought the "doctor" into court was to emulate the stork's pose by standing on one foot in a barrel of water for a specific time. Standing on the right foot meant a boy and left foot a girl. The allegation made at that time this complainant tried it on and after living up his money and putting in several one-legged hours in the water all he got was the rheumatism, and he sued to get his money back. The "doctor" was acquitted but had to pay the costs.

PRESIDENT OF C. C. A. A. NAMES COMMITTEE

Board of Directors Taking An Active Interest In Affairs of
The Association

BASEBALL TEAM IS DISCUSSED

An important and enthusiastic meeting of the board of directors of the recently organized Clearfield County Athletic Association was held Saturday afternoon at the office of the president of the association, Mr. James P. O'Laughlin, Esq., at which the members of the Standing Committee who will be the right bower of the president were named and other business of the association discussed and dispatched.

The members of the board of directors are Cecil F. Wilson, H. D. Healy, G. Webb Shillingford, Ralph Jordan, W. I. Betts, Fred B. Kerr and T. Reilly Lytle. All of these gentlemen were present, with the exception of Mr. Jordan, who was detained by business. The fine attendance at the meeting of the board of directors is the best indication that the C. C. A. A. is going to be a live organization which will bring to Clearfield a wholesome athletic environment. The association has a board of directors who are directing and that is what is most needed.

President O'Laughlin called the meeting to order promptly at three o'clock and stated that he had received various suggestions as to the personnel of the Standing Committee, and before making his appointment, would welcome more suggestions. After many additional names had been suggested and various gentlemen discussed as timber for the all-important committee places, the president named the following:

Dent Holden, T. Reilly Lytle, Joseph M. Malloy, Ralph Jordan and Ed. Jufon.

These gentlemen will handle all association business falling under the following heads, and will, respectively be known as Chairmen of these activities:

Basket Ball and Foot Ball, Baseball, Aquatic Sports, Boxing and Wrestling, and Track Sports. They will carry out whatever policies are decided upon by the board of directors, carry out the plans of the president, scout and arrange for events, matches and exhibitions and handle all activities falling under their branch of athletic activities. They are forbidden, however, to make any contracts binding on the association without first submitting such contracts or deals to their Standing Committee colleagues who, as a body, will act as a sort of a board of censors.

The appointments of the president were unanimously approved by the board of directors and will meet with universal approval of Clearfield port and athletic lovers. All are experienced men in their respective lines and are held in high esteem among the business interests of the town. Their appointment is a guarantee that all sports will be on the level.

After the appointments were disposed of there was a general discussion of the affairs of the association. First in line was naturally baseball, and it was the unanimous opinion of the board of directors that Clearfield should have baseball this summer and that steps be immediately taken to set a lineup on players, competing camps and schedules. A meeting will be held in the near future at which a general policy as to the standard of the team, salaries etc., will be outlined. It was the sense of the meeting that Clearfield must have a bang-up team, that home players should be used wherever they show the proper speed and class and that players be recruited from outside who will help make up a team that will be in keeping with our progressive city. All reported that they found a lot of baseball enthusiasm and that there would be little trouble in financing a team for this season.

The interesting subject of playground for the children was brought up by director H. D. Healey and after some discussion, the president appointed W. I. Betts to scout for possible sites in each ward, learn what they would cost if anything, and carry the matter to Borough Council in an effort to enlist their support in

No American Food For Soviet Nation

Berlin Dispatch Indicates United States
Will Assist In Putting Down
The German Radicals

EBERT CALLS CABINET MEETING

PARIS, March 22.—The American mission in Berlin has presented Premier Bauer with a communication declaring that the United States cannot furnish any more food to Germany if the Soviet republic is established. Berlin dispatches today said:

BERLIN, March 21.—Night.—The Ebert cabinet met late today to consider the situation brought about by the Spartacan outbreaks throughout Germany. President Ebert called the ministers in session soon after he returned to the city at 11 a. m. For the rest it was understood Justav Noske will retain his position as Minister of Defense. Government officials suddenly predicted a return to normal conditions despite the fact that the general strike has not been called off. They felt that a majority of the workers would return to their posts tomorrow. Government officials said that martial law had been proclaimed in Leipzig where troops occupied the city after vigorous fighting with the radicals. Hundreds are reported to have been killed. Some estimates place the number of killed at 1,000 but officials declare an accurate estimate is impossible at this time.

TWAS BENSON WHO TOLD SIMS TO KEEP AN EYE ON THE BRITISH

WASHINGTON, March 22.—It was Admiral Benson who warned Admiral Sims "don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes" Sims declared before the Senate Naval Affairs committee here today. Several weeks ago Sims was given to him during a conference at the Navy Department was about to start for Europe. Benson at the time of the utterances was chief of naval operations. He is now head of the Shipping Board. It was with apparent reluctance that Admiral Sims divulged Benson's name after Chairman Hale had twice requested it. Sims said it was either just before or after he left the Secretary of the Navy's office that he received this warning.

Sims referred to Benson as being "intensely anti-British" and said his statement was repeated three times on different occasions. When he saw him in Paris six months later he was admonished again and a third time in London. I have always been of the opinion that he is intensely anti-British and I regarded this as a personal prejudice on the part of Admiral Benson.

The instructions Sims alleged Benson gave him were "Don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes. It is none of our business who pulls the chestnuts out of the fire. We would just as soon fight the British as the Germans." Senator Pittman, of Nevada, a Democrat, pointed out that the incident occurred before the United States entered the war. "But I was being sent over because we were going into the war," Sims said. "No one else knew it," Pittman answered and said sarcastically "your pre-knowledge was perfectly remarkable."

PARIS JOURNAL BLAMES WILSON

PARIS, March 22.—The Journal Des Debats today blamed President Wilson for the Senate's rejection of the peace treaty.

JUDGES MUST WAIT CENSUS COUNT TO GET WAGE BOOST

Official Returns Must Be Made, Ruling Announced at Capital.

HARRISBURG, March 22.—(Special.)—Judges of the Common Pleas and Orphans courts, whose salaries are based on population of their districts, will not be entitled to increased salaries under the 1920 census until the official figures of 1920 are announced according to an opinion of Deputy Attorney General William M. Hargrett.

The salaries of judges under the act of July 1, 1918, provide those of the Court of Common Pleas from $7,000 to $10,000 having less than 65,000 to $10,000 in districts of 100,000 but less than 200,000. The judges of Orphans' Courts receive the same salaries. Under the ruling the judges in districts affected by new census figures will have to wait for salary increases until the official figures are announced.

All estimates place Clearfield county well over the 100,000 mark. There will not only give judges a salary of $10,000 per year but will also oust the County Judges for a County Comptroller who will be elected by the people.

With regard to baseball the organization went on record as not favoring Sunday base ball for Clearfield, nor will the Clearfield team be permitted to play out of town on Sunday. This is in line with the object of the association to so conduct their affairs that there will be no possible chance for discord or dissension in any quarter. Athletics as Clearfield citizens want it is the motto of the association.

The city of DuBois has figured its fire loss and the figures are conservatively placed at $500,000. The citizens are agreed that the firemen of the city fought valiantly and successfully considering the odds against them. It appears that the fire got a tremendous start through the failure of their alarm system to function. The system, in this instance being by telephone communication to the power house where the fire whistle is located. Ten minutes are said to have elapsed before the power house phone was answered. Then there were other difficulties. Equipment both as to engines and hose, was not adequate to the size of the task and this in the face of the fact that the firemen had called the attention of the people to the need for additional equipment and hose. It is the same old story. Every city having a fire department has to look the barn after the horse is stolen but so long as no bad fire comes along they sleep peacefully.

What is the condition of Clearfield's fire fighting equipment today? Is there anything the fire boys have recommended that we have not provided? Is that which we have in good shape for the worst that may come along? These are timely questions. Who can answer?

FOUR COURSES

Four steps in regard to the treaty that the president can now take are as follows:

1. He can send the rejected treaty back to the allies, with the declaration that the United States cannot now reach an agreement on it.
 2. He can let the state of war continue while the question of ratification goes into the campaign.
 3. He can negotiate a separate peace with Germany.
 4. He can negotiate temporary agreements or a modus vivendi with the allies and Germany to bridge the period from now until the treaty is voted on by the people.
- Of the four courses outlined, it is believed that the last will be the one decided on by the president.

METHODISTS PLAY WILSON AND COLBY

President Wilson has dropped from his high place and gone down, down, down till he got so low that some one cut a hole in the floor and let him fall through. It is enough to make a dead man turn in his grave and a live man blush for shame.

"In Washington," he said, "we are being very much embarrassed. The President has been squarely against us in about thirty-four measures for public welfare. But we put them across. We did it against his opposition and without any of his help. Now he has gone from the high place he held, while Bryan and others who were in his cabinet have grown in public favor."

"When Colby got himself on the shipping board he went round speaking in favor of everything that was rotten. When the hearing on the prohibition legislation was being conducted in Washington, I sat within a few feet of Colby. He represented himself as giving the opinion of the shipping board when he declared that to put 'beers' out would reduce the output of the American shipyards from 25 to 50 per cent. Secretary Daniels was then called in, and by the records he showed that in states which had gone dry the production of shipyards had been increased 25 per cent."

At this point Mr. Wilson was obliged to pause to let the cries of approval which rose from the ministers and their wives subside.

"Just before the eighteenth amendment went into effect," he continued, "the liquor interests raised a $2,000,000 slush fund. This money is being distributed now. Today I learned that contracts have been made with many foreign language newspapers for the printing of page advertisements proclaiming against the dry legislation. We must not weaken on our stand on the liquor question."

Beer Bills Denounced

"Efforts are being made now to modify the legislation to permit the manufacture and sale of 2 per cent. beer and 5 per cent. wine. This is not the fight of the retailers. It is the big brewers who are putting up the money. They will make more money out of the 2 per cent. beer. It will mean that the man who drinks will now have to buy three times as much to get the same 'jolt' he got out of a glass of 6 per cent. beer. The American Brewers' Association financed the German alliance and worked against this country in the war. They are traitors. They plotted treason. They have pumped poison into our girls' and, if allowed, will take our homes. They have dominated Congress, threatened Presidents and bought up newspapers."

Salts Fine For Aching Kidneys

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel and ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

I took a second dose before going to bed and can truthfully say I did not cough once all night. Three Generations of Loyal Service—

SEVENTY years ago the New York Central Railroad ran the first local train between New York and Peekskill. Patrick Boylan, who had worked for years as engine-tender and fireman, was its engineer. Full of honors and good deeds, the life of Patrick Boylan came to an end, but William, his son, trained in the tradition and practice of the engineer's calling by his father, daily runs his switch engine at Harmon. William the second, grandson of Patrick, still following the family tradition, is a passenger brakeman on the Hudson River Division. Vincent, son of William the first, works in the Equipment Department. Margaret, his sister, is in the office of the Auditor of Passenger Accounts.

The Boylans are no prouder of this record than are we. Three generations of loyal service—it is fine to have given them; it is fine to have inspired such devotion. The organization which can thus hold the good-will of a family from father to son and grandsons is more than mechanically efficient. It is human.

If we are able to give the public an efficient and satisfactory railroad service, it is largely because we have thousands of employees as faithful and loyal as the Boylans. We know your interests and ours could be in no better hands.

Are there any short cuts?

WE are asking for adequate rates. That the revenue derived from the pre-war rates now in effect does not measure up to the high costs of 1920 is very plain.

"But," you ask, "how about those important improvements and discoveries that have come about during the last few years—'automatic' telephones, circuits over which several long distance conversations may be held simultaneously, and so on? Aren't there some short cuts you can make at this time towards bringing about a fair balance of income and outgo?"

Unfortunately, no! For while we are planning all of these things as rapidly as possible, not for several years can they be placed in general widespread use.

Take "automatic" telephones as an example. Building interiors must be changed, entire central office equipments must be replaced, likewise telephone instruments—and altogether it will take years of time and millions of dollars.

We have already adopted every present possibility for economy and efficiency in the conduct of the business.

Today it is a question of securing sufficient revenue to meet present costs. That is all that is asked.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

James Mumma, who has been on the sick list for almost two weeks, has so far recovered as to be able to return to his work today at the sole leather tannery.

Orlie Norris reports that so far something over two thousand dollars worth of certificates of stock has been disposed of, which is being issued by the Industrial and Community Association, the money derived from stock sales to be used in erecting the blouse factory building.

A little child of Walter Blute, while playing about a room in the house Sunday, fell and sustained injuries which necessitated the attention of a physician.

Alonza Ammerman, a former resident of this place, now of Phillipsburg, was a Curwensville visitor Saturday.

I. D. Kerns, of Brockport, Pa., was in town several days last week, shaking hands with old-time friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Julia Capes, of Anderson street, died on Sunday morning at 8:15 o'clock, after a short illness of influenza and pneumonia. She was aged 25 years and 5 months. Deceased is survived by her husband and four small children. No time has been fixed for the funeral at this writing, and it is more than likely that her remains will be taken to Clearfield and interred in the Catholic cemetery at that place. She was a sister of Andrew Voleski and of Mrs. John Blute, of this place.

Next week the writer will attempt the task of recording a short history of Company B, 149th Regiment, P. V. He will be assisted in this task by First Lieutenant Milton McClure, a member of that company, and a soldier who never missed a march or fight in which his regiment was engaged from the time he enlisted until his mustering out. The 149th was a three year term regiment, and took a part in nearly all battles fought by the Army of the Potomac during its three year service. Mr. McClure is past 80 years of age, but the events of his army life are still fresh in his memory and what information he contributes to the article, will be absolutely correct and undisputed.

Once again the writer is called upon to record the death of one of Curwensville's oldest and most esteemed citizens, and it is with sorrow and regret that this duty falls upon him, knowing that he has lost from earth a friend and a brother. Daniel Schorr is no more of this earth, he having passed into the great beyond at the hour of 10 o'clock Sunday morning, at his home on North Thompson street, after an unusually severe illness covering a period of several weeks, although he had been ailing for several years. The subject of this sketch, Daniel Schorr, was born in the state of Wurtemberg, and town of Alldorf, Germany, on October 2, 1845, where he resided until he was 21 years of age, when he came to America, locating first in Pittsburgh and afterwards in Clearfield. After a short residence in that place, and having an uncle, the late George Kittleberger, residing in this town, he came to Curwensville where he has since resided. He worked for Mr. Kittleberger for a number of years, and then took a position with Arnold & Hartshorn. For the past 35 or 40 years he worked at the sole leather tannery here, and not later than four week ago was at the plant trying to do his bit. In January, 1876, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Konrad. Of this union five children were born, two of whom died in infancy, three surviving the father, viz: Fred, who resides at Millersburg, Pa.; Miss Annie, at home, and Miss Frances, who is engaged in teaching school at Braddock, Pa., and who arrived at home a few hours before death invaded it. His widow also survives him. Mr. Schorr has been a member of the Lutheran denomination since boyhood, and was an active member of Grace Lutheran church, this place. He was also connected with Curwensville Lodge Knights of Pythias, being the oldest member. He united with that order at Clearfield before there ever was a lodge in this place. For many years he filled the office of Master of Finance in Curwensville Lodge. In home life he was a kind husband and an indulgent father; being of a quiet and genial disposition he made many friends among his fellow workmen, who held him in high esteem. His funeral will be held from his late home on Tuesday afternoon, the order of Knights of Pythias having charge of the burial service.

BODY OF BROOKVILLE RESIDENT WAS FOUND OUT IN WOODS

Lying in the Deemer woods, one-half mile west of Brookville, the body of Samuel A. Craig, former member of Congress, a captain in the Civil war, and one of the loveliest and most respected of Jefferson county's pioneers, was found Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock by a searching party that had been scouring the country about the county seat since late Wednesday.

Captain Craig, who was 81 years of age, left his home about noon on Wednesday. He did not return and late that evening several parties started in a search for him. The body was found in a thicket. Death had evidently come during the night, due to exposure.

The Cold That Hangs On

This is No. 5 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain attacks of the air passages—such as Croup, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's VapoRub may be of value in this condition.

A cold is simply an inflammation of some part of the air passages—throat, larynx or bronchial tubes—just like a sore is an inflammation of the skin. A long continued cold means constant inflammation and this constant inflammation frequently weakens the air passages so that they become an easy point of attack for invading germs of more serious diseases. A "cold that hangs on," therefore, is simply nature's "red flag" indicating that there is "trouble below," and this warning should never be neglected. Nightly applications of Vick's VapoRub will aid nature to clear up that inflammation. Because Vick's acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vick's are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication in direct contact with the inflamed areas. Vick's should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vick's the size of a pea. Samples to new users will be sent free on request to The Vick Chemical Company, 285 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

TOOT AND HIS SASSAFRAS HOUNDS APPEAR

Spring is here at last, regardless of the fact that the ground is again covered with snow by Friday night's fall. Our knowledge of the actual arrival of spring is firmly established by the fact that Ira Toot and his "sassafras hounds" are not only upon the wing, but they have captured and have on sale their first batch of spring's first and best tonic, the luscious, blood-cleansing "sassafras."

Toot is as regular as Barker's almanac in announcing the seasons and when he perambulates our streets with his basket of "sassafras," we know "spring has come," regardless of the weather.

Toot's patrons were charging him with profiteering this morning when they found the price had doubled over last year's, but Toot cleared his skirts by pointing to the telephone raise and further stating that the price advance was necessary by increased cost of raw material, shorter hours for labor, with its consequent decreased production.

Our Family Laundry Service —what it is

A help that will simplify your particular washday problems—such is our Family Laundry Service.

If you are one of the many housewives who prefer to do some of their ironing themselves, and to have the washing done "out" this service will appeal to you.

These are its features:

Our driver calls for your family bundle at a definite time each week, and we do your washing in our customary considerate and sanitary manner.

Also we iron the flat pieces, like tablecloths, bed linens, and towels. The other articles, all immaculately clean, and starched when necessary, we carefully fold and leave you to finish.

Our driver delivers the bundle to you again at a definite time—everything as sweet and clean as you could wish, and the flat pieces finished in a way that will delight you.

We relieve you of the steam, splashing, muss and toil of the washtub—and what is of equally vital concern to you as a thrifty housewife, there is no boiling, no rubbing and no bleaching to wear out household linens and garments. Our method is simply one of thorough sousing and rinsing in clean, soft water and suds of pure white soap.

To you we leave only the ironing of the lighter pieces.

Doesn't this appeal to you as being immensely easier and much more economical than the antiquated scrub board way?

We can save time, labor and clothes for you—telephone and our driver will call.

COURT NOTES

Mamie Proctor, by her attorneys, Chase & Chase, filed an application for divorce from Freddie Proctor, who is not so mild-mannered as his name would signify, if the allegations in the plaintiff's statement are correct.

It says the Proctors were married in May, 1918, and Freddie, by his cruel and barbarous treatment forced his wife to withdraw from his home September 9, 1918, and the divorce action follows.

Up Against the Real Thing.

Maurice was obstinate, and Robert, two years his senior, was endeavoring to make him mind. Finally he marched over to him, and, grasping him by the collar, shook him, and said, "Look here, young fellow, you haven't got your father to deal with this time."

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind incombustible ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infect the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before breakfast each morning drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the bowels the previous day's poisons and toxins, and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

CONGRESS WILL LIKELY DECLARE WAR AT END

PRESIDENT IT IS SAID WILL VETO BUT
MEASURE WILL VERY LIKELY BE PASS-
ED OVER HIS HEAD

WHITE HOUSE SILENT ON COURSE

WASHINGTON, March 21.—A joint resolution, declaring war with Germany at an end, is the next step to be taken by Congress in support of the senate's rout of the peace treaty and its return to President Wilson.

With no break in the silence which has engulfed the White House ever since the defeat of the treaty and no intimation as to when the President would disclose his plans, senate leaders remaining in Washington today prepared to rush action on the Knox resolution. Senator Borah, one of the irreconcilables, said this afternoon that the coming week would see an effort in the senate to obtain consideration of the Knox resolution.

The general opinion in congressional circles is that no great difficulty will be experienced in securing the passage of a resolution declaring the war at an end. Should the President veto such a resolution, as it is presumed he will, the Republicans believe enough votes can be mustered to override his veto. When this is accomplished peace with Germany will finally be a reality. According to Senator Borah "peace will be the law of the land."

Should the President remain obstinate, however, and refuse to bow to the will of the majority in Congress, a very extraordinary situation would arise. Peace, of course, would be an accomplished fact, but the passage of the joint resolution could not compel the President to authorize the re-institution of a diplomatic and consular corps in Germany. In short it would not have the effect of re-establishing diplomatic relations with Germany.

With the prospect that both the President and the senate will be at sword's point for many months to come, interest now is centering on the White House in the hope that the President will use the impetuosity of his position and choose some graceful method of escape from the embarrassment which would make the situation utterly confusing and intolerable.

While senators generally believe no expression on the treaty situation will be forthcoming from the President for some time, it has been intimated that the President now is considering a message or statement to the American people wherein he will be able to make public his plans for the future—and the campaign. The President has often expressed his pleasure at being able to take "common council" with the people and as he has already suggested a "great and solemn referendum" on the treaty, it is only natural to assume that he will seek to determine the pre-election tendency of the public on the treaty situation and this could best be done by publication of a statement of his aims, and observations on the public reaction.

LITTLE HOPE FOR PASSAGE OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN DELAWARE

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Chances for ratification of the Woman's Suffrage amendment in Delaware were described as "very bad" at suffrage headquarters here today. Legislators in both Delaware and Washington met today to consider the suffrage amendment which would allow women voters equal rights as enjoyed by men. Thirty-four states have ratified and it is hoped Delaware and Washington will ratify the amendment making 36, the number necessary for federal ratification.

FIRST STORK NOW PELICAN MAKES ZABSKI TROUBLE

Alleged infraction of Insurance
Laws Land Philadelphia Co.'s
Solicitors in County Jail

FALSE PRETENSE IS CHARGED

The population of the Clearfield county jail was increased to the extent of six more or less slick-haired, debonaire "vest-pocket" business men on Friday last, thanks to an investigation started by Squire James W. Ruffner, of Madera, and carried thru to a highly successful conclusion of the first round by District Attorney Arnold and Sheriff Gorman, aided and abetted by Harry Ritter, of Harrisburg, an attache of the Insurance Department of Pennsylvania.

The six gentlemen in question are "Doctor" Walter Zabski, of Madera, the erstwhile alleged birth control expert; Charles Felix, Madera; A. Stielman, John Oana, and Albert Roldes, all of Philadelphia, and Mike Holenchak, formerly of Philadelphia, but now of Winbury.

The prisoners are in jail in default of bail, after a hearing before Squire Ruffner at Madera, and are each charged with conspiracy and false pretense. The arrests and charges grew out of a little "flier in insurance," the ramifications of the outfit extending from Philadelphia, up through the counties of Clearfield, Cambria, Jefferson and Indiana.

The Philadelphia contingent, representing the Pelican Insurance company and the Bennett agency of Philadelphia, hopped into Clearfield county some time ago and let "Doctor" Zabski and Holenchak onto their scheme to sell insurance. The policies to be sold were those of the Pelican Insurance company. The offer was lattering and looked like easy money and the local men decided to join hands with the city solicitors.

The "stuff"—stuff it was—was labeled and sold as "life insurance," but the policies sold represented health and accident insurance. Business was confined strictly to the foreigners among the mining population of the four counties named and as such victim was required to put up $12 for membership fee and $3 or premium, a land office business was soon underway. The new insurance was so good and so cheap that the policy holders couldn't keep as quiet about it as they were expected to and when the keen-witted Justice tuffner got a line on how things were progressing he set a trap for the outfit and "some haul" was the result.

More than one hundred policies were sold in the Madera end of the county alone, and while there was no limit fixed in the policies that provision cut no ice with the solicitors, who took the fee, wrote the policy and fearing a three months old child might be considered rather green for life insurance, when they found such whose parents were willing to bite, the gentlemanly agent immediately shot the age of the insured from three months to thirty years. It was fast going while the going was good but the Pennsylvania statutes prescribe certain insurance imitations, hence the upset.

Following the arrests Mr. Ritter came to Clearfield and assisted the District Attorney with the case. Mr. Arnold went to Philadelphia Friday or a conference with Insurance Commissioner Donaldson on the matter, and while there called at the office of the Pelican Insurance company, who to sell a life insurance policy, and asked them to make good the amounts abstracted from the alleged Clearfield county victims but this was refused. The Bennett agency was also visited, with the same proposition and he same result.

There is an old couplet which tells of the bird called the pelican, whose bill holds more than its belican and then informs any doubting countryman that he can't tell how in hell.

District Attorney Arnold proposes to show at May term of criminal court, not only how much the Pelican company holds, (the contents strongly) but he's going to make them isgorge and raise all the helican with the six gentlemen now in durlisgorge and raise all the helican vice vile, and some others.

METHODISTS FLAY WILSON AND COLBY

Attack The Newest Secretary of
State Because of His Stand
On Prohibition

SAY WILSON HAS FALLEN DOWN

In its massed attack on all forms of laxity the Methodist conference Saturday swung its forces over to the prohibition sector and cheered and applauded during a scathing denunciation of President Wilson and Bainbridge Colby, the newly appointed secretary of state.

Mr. Colby was called a "paid lobbyist of the brewing interests." His appointment was termed "perfectly outrageous." President Wilson came in for his share of the arraignment because he had "come down from his former high leve and continued to come down, down, down until he got to where Colby was and made this 'outrageous appointment'."

The speaker was Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals. He spoke at the morning session of the Philadelphia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, Fifty-fourth and Catharine streets.

Mr. Wilson was frequently interrupted in the course of his speech by the applause of the audience and by the cries of "Hallelujah!" "Amen!" and "That's Right!"

Enthusiasm was almost equally strong during the speech of the Rev. R. E. Johnson, president of the temperance board, who preceded Mr. Wilson on the program. He called for a war to the knife on the "wet traitors." He denounced Governor Edwards of New Jersey and Governor Ritchie of Maryland as "leaders in a movement of rank disloyalty and spokesmen for propagandists who would perpetuate one of the most hideous forms of crime."

Colby Lobbyist, Says Wilson
"Bainbridge Colby, recently appointed secretary of state, has been hanging around Washington and is evidently the paid lobbyist of the brewery interests," said Mr. Wilson. "In this last cabinet appointment

When one of his Bigler township clients haled him into court to recover about $150 paid the doctor for medical services. In this case it appeared that the "doctor" claimed then to be in league with the stork instead of the pelican, and it was alleged had agreed for a consideration to have the stork visit any childless home at will and deposit therein a boy or girl baby. The employing "father-to-be" in the case which brought the "doctor" into court was to emulate the stork's pose by standing on one foot in a barrel of water for a specific time. Standing on the right foot meant a boy and left foot a girl. The allegation made at that time "This complainant tried it on and after living up his money and putting in several one-legged hours in the water all he got was the rheumatism, and he sued to get his money back. The "doctor" was acquitted but had to pay the costs.

PRESIDENT OF C. C. A. A. NAMES COMMITTEE

Board of Directors Taking An Active Interest In Affairs of
The Association

BASEBALL TEAM IS DISCUSSED

An important and enthusiastic meeting of the board of directors of the recently organized Clearfield County Athletic Association was held Saturday afternoon at the office of the president of the association, Mr. James P. O'Laughlin, Esq., at which the members of the Standing Committee who will be the right bower of the president were named and other business of the association discussed and dispatched.

The members of the board of directors are Cecil F. Wilson, H. D. Healy, G. Webb Shillingford, Ralph Jordan, W. I. Betts, Fred B. Kerr and T. Reilly Lytle. All of these gentlemen were present, with the exception of Mr. Jordan, who was detained by business. The fine attendance at the meeting of the board of directors is the best indication that the C. C. A. A. is going to be a live organization which will bring to Clearfield a wholesome athletic environment. The association has a board of directors who are directing and that is what is most needed.

President O'Laughlin called the meeting to order promptly at three o'clock and stated that he had received various suggestions as to the personnel of the Standing Committee, and before making his appointment, would welcome more suggestions. After many additional names had been suggested and various gentlemen discussed as timber for the all-important committee places, the president named the following:

Dent Holden, T. Reilly Lytle, Joseph M. Malloy, Ralph Jordan and Ed. Jufon.

These gentlemen will handle all association business falling under the following heads, and will, respectively be known as Chairmen of these activities:

Basket Ball and Foot Ball, Baseball, Aquatic Sports, Boxing and Wrestling, and Track Sports. They will carry out whatever policies are decided upon by the board of directors, carry out the plans of the president, scout and arrange for events, matches and exhibitions and handle all activities falling under their branch of athletic activities. They are forbidden, however, to make any contracts binding on the association without first submitting such contracts or deals to their Standing Committee colleagues who, as a body, will act as a sort of a board of censors.

The appointments of the president were unanimously approved by the board of directors and will meet with universal approval of Clearfield port and athletic lovers. All are experienced men in their respective lines and are held in high esteem among the business interests of the town. Their appointment is a guarantee that all sports will be on the level.

After the appointments were disposed of there was a general discussion of the affairs of the association. First in line was naturally baseball, and it was the unanimous opinion of the board of directors that Clearfield should have baseball this summer and that steps be immediately taken to get a lineup on players, competing camps and schedules. A meeting will be held in the near future at which a general policy as to the standard of the team, salaries etc., will be outlined. It was the sense of the meeting that Clearfield must have a bang-up team, that home players should be used wherever they show the proper speed and class and that players be recruited from outside who will help make up a team that will be in keeping with our progressive city. All reported that they found a lot of baseball enthusiasm and that there would be little trouble in financing a team for this season.

The interesting subject of playground for the children was brought up by director H. D. Healey and after one discussion, the president appointed W. I. Betts to scout for possible sites in each ward, learn what they would cost if anything, and carry the matter to Borough Council in an effort to enlist their support in

Berlin Dispatch Indicates United States
Will Assist In Putting Down
The German Radicals

EBERT CALLS CABINET MEETING

PARIS, March 22.—The American mission in Berlin has presented Premier Bauer with a communication declaring that the United States cannot furnish any more food to Germany if the Soviet republic is established. Berlin dispatches today said:

BERLIN, March 21.—Night.—The Ebert cabinet met late today to consider the situation brought about by the Spartacan outbreaks throughout Germany. President Ebert called the ministers in session soon after he returned to the city at 11 a. m. For the rest it was understood Justav Moska will retain his position as Minister of Defense. Government officials suddenly predicted a return to normal conditions despite the fact that the general strike has not been called off. They felt that a majority of the workers would return to their posts tomorrow. Government officials said that martial law had been proclaimed in Leipzig where troops occupied the city after vigorous fighting with the radicals. Hundreds are reported to have been killed. Some estimates place the number of killed at 1,000 but officials declare an accurate estimate is impossible at this time.

TWAS BENSON WHO TOLD SIMS TO KEEP AN EYE ON THE BRITISH

WASHINGTON, March 22.—It was Admiral Benson who warned Admiral Sims "don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes" Sims declared before the Senate Naval Affairs committee here today. Several weeks ago Sims was given to him during a conference at the Navy Department was about to start for Europe. Benson at the time of his utterances was chief of naval operations. He is now head of the Shipping Board. It was with apparent reluctance that Admiral Sims divulged Benson's name after Chairman Hale had twice requested it. Sims said it was either just before or after he left the Secretary of the Navy's office that he received this warning.

Sims referred to Benson as being "intensely anti-British" and said his statement was repeated three times on different occasions. When he saw him in Paris six months later he was admonished again and a third time in London. I have always been of the opinion that he is intensely anti-British and I regarded this as a personal prejudice on the part of Admiral Benson.

The instructions Sims alleged Benson gave him were "Don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes. It is none of our business who pulls the chestnuts out of the fire. We would just as soon fight the British as the Germans." Senator Pittman, of Nevada, a Democrat, pointed out that the incident occurred before the United States entered the war. "But I was being sent over because we were going into the war," Sims said. "No one else knew it," Pittman answered and said sarcastically "your pre-knowledge was perfectly remarkable."

PARIS JOURNAL BLAMES WILSON

PARIS, March 22.—The Journal Des Debats today blamed President Wilson for the Senate's rejection of the peace treaty.

JUDGES MUST WAIT CENSUS COUNT TO GET WAGE BOOST

Official Returns Must Be Made, Ruling Announced at Capital.

HARRISBURG, March 22.—(Special.)—Judges of the Common Pleas and Orphans courts, whose salaries are based on population of their districts, will not be entitled to increased salaries under the 1920 census until the official figures are in. The 1920 are announced according to an opinion of Deputy Attorney General William M. Hargrett.

The salaries of judges under the act of July 1, 1918, provide those of the Court of Common Pleas from $7,000 to $10,000 having less than 65,000 to $10,000 in districts of 100,000 but less than 200,000. The judges of Orphans' Courts receive the same salaries. Under the ruling the judges in districts affected by new census figures will have to wait for salary increases until the official figures are announced.

All estimates place Clearfield county well over the 100,000 mark. There will not only give judges a salary of $10,000 per year but will also oust the County Judges for a County Comptroller who will be elected by the people.

With regard to baseball the organization went on record as not favoring Sunday base ball for Clearfield, nor will the Clearfield team be permitted to play out of town on Sunday. This is in line with the object of the association to so conduct their affairs that there will be no possible chance for discord or dissension in any quarter. Athletics as Clearfield citizens want it is the motto of the association.

The city of DuBois has figured its fire loss and the figures are conservatively placed at $500,000. The citizens are agreed that the firemen of the city fought valiantly and successfully considering the odds against them. It appears that the fire got a tremendous start through the failure of their alarm system to function. The system, in this instance being by telephone communication to the power house where the fire whistle is located. Ten minutes are said to have elapsed before the power house phone was answered. Then there were other difficulties. Equipment both as to engines and hose, was not adequate to the size of the task and this in the face of the fact that the firemen had called the attention of the people to the need for additional equipment and hose. It is the same old story. Every city having a fire department has to look the barn after the horse is stolen but so long as no bad fire comes along they sleep peacefully.

What is the condition of Clearfield's fire fighting equipment today? Is there anything the fire boys have recommended that we have not provided? Is that which we have in good shape for the worst that may come along? These are timely questions. Who can answer?

FOUR COURSES

Four steps in regard to the treaty that the president can now take are as follows:

1. He can send the rejected treaty back to the allies, with the declaration that the United States cannot now reach an agreement on it.
 2. He can let the state of war continue while the question of ratification goes into the campaign.
 3. He can negotiate a separate peace with Germany.
 4. He can negotiate temporary agreements or a modus vivendi with the allies and Germany to bridge the period from now until the treaty is voted on by the people.
- Of the four courses outlined, it is believed that the last will be the one decided on by the president.

President Wilson has dropped from his high place and gone down, down, down till he got so low that some one cut a hole in the floor and let him fall through. It is enough to make a dead man turn in his grave and a live man blush for shame.

"In Washington," he said, "we are being very much embarrassed. The President has been squarely against us in about thirty-four measures for public welfare. But we put them across. We did it against his opposition and without any of his help. Now he has gone from the high place he held, while Bryan and others who were in his cabinet have grown in public favor."

"When Colby got himself on the shipping board he went round speaking in favor of everything that was rotten. When the hearing on the prohibition legislation was being conducted in Washington, I sat within a few feet of Colby. He represented himself as giving the opinion of the shipping board when he declared that to put 'beers' out would reduce the output of the American shipyards from 25 to 50 per cent. Secretary Daniels was then called in, and by the records he showed that

At this point Mr. Wilson was obliged to pause to let the cries of approval which rose from the ministers and their wives subside.

"Just before the eighteenth amendment went into effect," he continued, "the liquor interests raised a $2,000,000 slush fund. This money is being distributed now. Today I learned that contracts have been made with many foreign language newspapers for the printing of page advertisements proclaiming against the dry legislation. We must not weaken on our stand on the liquor question."

Beer Bills Denounced

"Efforts are being made now to modify the legislation to permit the manufacture and sale of 2 per cent. beer and 5 per cent. wine. This is not the fight of the retailers. It is the big brewers who are putting up the money. They will make more money out of the 2 per cent. beer. It will mean that the man who drinks will now have to buy three times as much to get the same 'jolt' he got out of a glass of 6 per cent. beer. The American Brewers' Association financed the German alliance and worked against this country in the war. They are traitors. They plotted treason. They have pumped poison into our girls' and, if allowed, will take our homes. They have dominated Congress, threatened Presidents and bought up newspapers."

Salts Fine For Aching Kidneys

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel and ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound

The First Dose Gave Relief

C. E. Summers, Holdrege, Neb., writes: "One time ago I contracted a very severe cough and cold due to exposure. My cough got so bad I could hardly sleep for two or three nights. A friend of mine recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and I got a 50c bottle. The very first dose relieved me. I took a second dose before going to bed and can truthfully say I did not cough once all night. By using as directed the next two days my cough was entirely gone, and I give Foley's Honey and Tar full credit for my speedy and permanent recovery."

For more than thirty years Foley's Honey and Tar has been used with satisfaction and success. Sold everywhere.

Three Generations of Loyal Service—

SEVENTY years ago the New York Central Railroad ran the first local train between New York and Peekskill. Patrick Boylan, who had worked for years as engine-tender and fireman, was its engineer. Full of honors and good deeds, the life of Patrick Boylan came to an end, but William, his son, trained in the tradition and practice of the engineer's calling by his father, daily runs his switch engine at Harmon. William the second, grandson of Patrick, still following the family tradition, is a passenger brakeman on the Hudson River Division. Vincent, son of William the first, works in the Equipment Department. Margaret, his sister, is in the office of the Auditor of Passenger Accounts.

The Boylans are no prouder of this record than are we. Three generations of loyal service—it is fine to have given them; it is fine to have inspired such devotion. The organization which can thus hold the good-will of a family from father to son and grandsons is more than mechanically efficient. It is human.

If we are able to give the public an efficient and satisfactory railroad service, it is largely because we have thousands of employees as faithful and loyal as the Boylans. We know your interests and ours could be in no better hands.

Are there any short cuts?

WE are asking for adequate rates. That the revenue derived from the pre-war rates now in effect does not measure up to the high costs of 1920 is very plain.

"But," you ask, "how about those important improvements and discoveries that have come about during the last few years—'automatic' telephones, circuits over which several long distance conversations may be held simultaneously, and so on? Aren't there some short cuts you can make at this time towards bringing about a fair balance of income and outgo?"

Unfortunately, no! For while we are planning all of these things as rapidly as possible, not for several years can they be placed in general widespread use.

Take "automatic" telephones as an example. Building interiors must be changed, entire central office equipments must be replaced, likewise telephone instruments—and altogether it will take years of time and millions of dollars.

We have already adopted every present possibility for economy and efficiency in the conduct of the business.

Today it is a question of securing sufficient revenue to meet present costs. That is all that is asked.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

James Mumma, who has been on the sick list for almost two weeks, has so far recovered as to be able to return to his work today at the sole leather tannery.

Orlie Norris reports that so far something over two thousand dollars worth of certificates of stock has been disposed of, which is being issued by the Industrial and Community Association, the money derived from stock sales to be used in erecting the blouse factory building.

A little child of Walter Blute, while playing about a room in the house Sunday, fell and sustained injuries which necessitated the attention of a physician.

Alonza Ammerman, a former resident of this place, now of Phillipsburg, was a Curwensville visitor Saturday.

I. D. Kerns, of Brockport, Pa., was in town several days last week, shaking hands with old-time friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Julia Capes, of Anderson street, died on Sunday morning at 8:15 o'clock, after a short illness of influenza and pneumonia. She was aged 25 years and 5 months. Deceased is survived by her husband and four small children. No time has been fixed for the funeral at this writing, and it is more than likely that her remains will be taken to Clearfield and interred in the Catholic cemetery at that place. She was a sister of Andrew Voleski and of Mrs. John Blute, of this place.

Next week the writer will attempt the task of recording a short history of Company B, 149th Regiment, P. V. He will be assisted in this task by First Lieutenant Milton McClure, a member of that company, and a soldier who never missed a march or fight in which his regiment was engaged from the time he enlisted until his mustering out. The 149th was a three year term regiment, and took a part in nearly all battles fought by the Army of the Potomac during its three year service. Mr. McClure is past 80 years of age, but the events of his army life are still fresh in his memory and what information he contributes to the article, will be absolutely correct and undisputed.

Once again the writer is called upon to record the death of one of Curwensville's oldest and most esteemed citizens, and it is with sorrow and regret that this duty falls upon him, knowing that he has lost from earth a friend and a brother. Daniel Schorr is no more of this earth, he having passed into the great beyond at the hour of 10 o'clock Sunday morning, at his home on North Thompson street, after an unusually severe illness covering a period of several weeks, although he had been ailing for several years. The subject of this sketch, Daniel Schorr, was born in the state of Wurtemberg, and town of Alldorf, Germany, on October 2, 1845, where he resided until he was 21 years of age, when he came to America, locating first in Pittsburgh and afterwards in Clearfield. After a short residence in that place, and having an uncle, the late George Kittleberger, residing in this town, he came to Curwensville where he has since resided. He worked for Mr. Kittleberger for a number of years, and then took a position with Arnold & Hartshorn. For the past 35 or 40 years he worked at the sole leather tannery here, and not later than four week ago was at the plant trying to do his bit. In January, 1876, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Konrad. Of this union five children were born, two of whom died in infancy, three surviving the father, viz: Fred, who resides at Millersburg, Pa.; Miss Annie, at home, and Miss Frances, who is engaged in teaching school at Braddock, Pa., and who arrived at home a few hours before death invaded it. His widow also survives him. Mr. Schorr has been a member of the Lutheran denomination since boyhood, and was an active member of Grace Lutheran church, this place. He was also connected with Curwensville Lodge Knights of Pythias, being the oldest member. He united with that order at Clearfield before there ever was a lodge in this place. For many years he filled the office of Master of Finance in Curwensville Lodge. In home life he was a kind husband and an indulgent father; being of a quiet and genial disposition he made many friends among his fellow workmen, who held him in high esteem. His funeral will be held from his late home on Tuesday afternoon, the order of Knights of Pythias having charge of the burial service.

BODY OF BROOKVILLE RESIDENT WAS FOUND OUT IN WOODS

Lying in the Deemer woods, one-half mile west of Brookville, the body of Samuel A. Craig, former member of Congress, a captain in the Civil war, and one of the loDEST and most respected of Jefferson county's pioneers, was found Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock by a searching party that had been scouring the country about the county seat since late Wednesday.

Captain Craig, who was 81 years of age, left his home about noon on Wednesday. He did not return and late that evening several parties started in a search for him. The body was found in a thicket. Death had evidently come during the night, due to exposure.

The Cold That Hangs On

This is No. 5 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain attacks of the air passages—such as Croup, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vicks' VapoRub may be of value in this condition.

A cold is simply an inflammation of some part of the air passages—throat, larynx or bronchial tubes—just like a sore is an inflammation of the skin. A long continued cold means constant inflammation and this constant inflammation frequently weakens the air passages so that they become an easy point of attack for invading germs of more serious diseases. A "cold that hangs on," therefore, is simply nature's "red flag" indicating that there is "trouble below," and this warning should never be neglected.

Nightly applications of Vicks' VapoRub will aid nature to clear up that inflammation. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication in direct contact with the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to The Vicks Chemical Company, 225 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

TOOT AND HIS SASSAFRAS HOUNDS APPEAR

Spring is here at last, regardless of the fact that the ground is again covered with snow by Friday night's fall. Our knowledge of the actual arrival of spring is firmly established by the fact that Ira Toot and his "sassafras hounds" are not only upon the wing, but they have captured and have on sale their first batch of spring's first and best tonic, the luscious, blood-cleansing "sassafras."

Toot is as regular as Barker's almanac in announcing the seasons and when he perambulates our streets with his basket of "sassafras," we know "spring has come," regardless of the weather.

Toot's patrons were charging him with profiteering this morning when they found the price had doubled over last year's, but Toot cleared his skirts by pointing to the telephone raise and further stating that the price advance was necessary by increased cost of raw material, shorter hours for labor, with its consequent decreased production.

Our Family Laundry Service —what it is

A help that will simplify your particular washday problems—such is our Family Laundry Service.

If you are one of the many housewives who prefer to do some of their ironing themselves, and to have the washing done "out" this service will appeal to you.

These are its features:

Our driver calls for your family bundle at a definite time each week, and we do your washing in our customary considerate and sanitary manner.

Also we iron the flat pieces, like tablecloths, bed linens, and towels. The other articles, all immaculately clean, and starched when necessary, we carefully fold and leave you to finish.

Our driver delivers the bundle to you again at a definite time—everything as sweet and clean as you could wish, and the flat pieces finished in a way that will delight you.

We relieve you of the steam, splashing, muss and toil of the washtub—and what is of equally vital concern to you as a thrifty housewife, there is no boiling, no rubbing and no bleaching to wear out household linens and garments. Our method is simply one of thorough sousing and rinsing in clean, soft water and suds of pure white soap.

To you we leave only the ironing of the lighter pieces.

Doesn't this appeal to you as being immensely easier and much more economical than the antiquated scrub board way?

We can save time, labor and clothes for you—telephone and our driver will call.

COURT NOTES

Mamie Proctor, by her attorneys, Chase & Chase, filed an application for divorce from Freddie Proctor, who is not so mild-mannered as his name would signify, if the allegations in the plaintiff's statement are correct.

It says the Proctors were married in May, 1918, and Freddie, by his cruel and barbarous treatment forced his wife to withdraw from his home September 9, 1918, and the divorce action follows.

Up Against the Real Thing.

Maurice was obstinate, and Robert, two years his senior, was endeavoring to make him mind. Finally he marched over to him, and, grasping him by the collar, shook him, and said, "Look here, young fellow, you haven't got your father to deal with this time."

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind incombustible ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infect the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before breakfast each morning drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the bowels the previous day's poisons and toxins, and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.
